PRESS RELEASE

One of Rock 'N' Roll's Greatest Guitarists Comes to Public Television in JEFF BECK LIVE AT RONNIE SCOTT'S

Over his remarkable, four-decade-long career, Jeff Beck has established himself as a true music legend. Beginning with his stint in the groundbreaking Yardbirds group in the '60s, and continuing through his time with the Jeff Beck Group and an outstanding solo career, Beck has proven to be a true music icon – an innovative and genre-spanning musician who has created some of the 20th century's most exciting songs and sounds.

The new American Public Television-distributed program JEFF BECK LIVE AT RONNIE SCOTT'S, premiering on public television stations nationwide beginning March 1, 2010, captures the master guitarist in top form. The special presents performances from Beck's celebrated 2007 series of concerts at Ronnie Scott's Jazz Club in London, with guest appearances by some of modern music's hottest artists.

Beck and his all-star band – including keyboardist Jason Robello, drummer Vinnie Colaiuta and bassist Tal Wakefield – rip through a sterling set list of Beck's greatest tunes. Included are hits like "Eternity's Breath," "Stratus," "Behind the Veil," "Nadia," "Space Boogie," "Angel (Footsteps)," "A Day in the Life," and

“Where Were You.”

JEFF BECK LIVE AT RONNIE SCOTT'S also includes guest spots by Joss Stone – who comes onstage with Beck for a killer version of “People Get Ready” – and Imogen Heap, who joins him on “Blanket.” Fellow guitar god (and former Yardbirds member) Eric Clapton teams up with Beck for a jaw-dropping version of “You Need Love.”

Full of amazing performances and high-profile guest stars, JEFF BECK LIVE AT RONNIE SCOTT'S is an unforgettable musical event.

JEFF BECK LIVE AT RONNIE SCOTT'S was acquired from Eagle Rock Entertainment – LTD by American Public Television for syndication to public television stations nationwide.
