

COLM HENRY (MUSICAL DIRECTOR)

Colm Henry, from Manor Kilbride in picturesque County Wicklow - the Garden of Ireland - was immersed in music from a young age, joining the National Youth Orchestra of Ireland as a trombonist at the age of 12.

Colm went on to graduate from University College Dublin with a First Class Honours Bachelor of Music Degree (B.Mus Hons) in 2005. An article by Colm entitled "Canonic Devices and Techniques in Bach's Orgelbuchlein" was published in "The Musicology Review".

Since that time Colm has been pursuing a busy performance and recording schedule with many of Ireland's foremost artists, including Clannad, Celtic Storm, Tommy Fleming, Westlife, Tony Kenny, and most recently as a member of the group Sephira. In 2006, Colm co-produced an album for "Sephira" and was part of their successful nationwide tour.

Colm is delighted to be touring as a vital part of the Celtic Tenor team.
